CLERK-ALBUQUERQUE

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT OF NEW MEXICO

Sandau et al,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

Civil Case No. 1:21-CV-00426-JHR

Old et al,

Defendants.

MOTION FOR MORE TIME TO FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT

COMES NOW Kyle Sandau, Mark Doty and Rebecca Kaiser humbly requesting that this Court grant Plaintiffs an additional 21 days in order to file an amended Complaint due to the sudden and unforeseen passing on May 7, 2021 of the father of Sandau and Kaiser, Mr. Neil A. Heier, a kind, humble man, husband and father, and a veteran of the Vietnam War where he had served his country honorably as a combat medic (EXHIBIT #1 - Notice of Death).

Considering necessary travel, funeral services and attending to any and all other such important and necessary matters related to the passing of the father of Sandau and Kaiser, Plaintiffs request that this Court therefore extend the current due date for an amended Complaint out to June 17, 2021, exactly 21 days beyond the current due date from the Order of May 7, 2021, the same day as Mr. Heier's passing, for Plaintiffs to then submit an amended, and much more powerful and overwhelmingly convincing, Complaint.

Plaintiffs also request at this time of the Forrest Fenn online Chase community, and whom will most certainly be immediately downloading and posting to social media this motion, to please respect the memory of Mr. Heier, and instead continue to direct any and all of their ongoing and extremely misguided vitriol and hate at them and them alone, while also making this Court aware of said individuals and what anyone looking for justice has to deal with here;

New Lawsuit - The Hint of Riches - Forrest Fenn's Treasure Hunt (EXHIBIT #2 - New Lawsuit),
Did Kyle Sandau admit to trespassing? - The Hint of Riches - Forrest Fenn's Treasure Hunt (EXHIBIT #3 - Kyle Sandau Trespassing), and, yes, that's exactly what Sandau had done, twice, along with Doty on the second occasion, with knowingly and wantonly trespassing, and there is absolutely nothing that can be done about it either, legally and or otherwise, not by anyone.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New Mexico that the foregoing is true and correct.

Respectfully submitted,

That wouldn't be ethical but I can tell you it's 107 pages of not a whole lot. I'm skimming now. I just walked in the door. Give me a minute. I think I can isolate the main part of complaint because a lot of it is articles from San Lazaro, FBI raid, other garbage...

So sad for the family. However they are still holding the hole card...the correct solution. Frivolous lawsuits can get very expensive for frivolous claimants.

I love the way they try to pretend they care about everything but the money. They act as if they have some high moral ground and from where they stand will give everyone a fair chase. They will get paid, all past wrongs will be made right and a NEW CHASE FOR EVERYONE that is fair because they can solve it. Once again someone trusted Forrest that 1-3 million was in a chest out in the wild. But won't trust him about the state it was found in. Why because they can't admit they were wrong. Being around the chase for a year I see it does something to peoples minds. Those who have never had hard challenges and come up short or know what it takes to over come them melt at defeat. When someone is given the gold medal all them years of participation awards somehow makes them feel they should get more. So what do they do now that mommy can't help take it to court.

This is, indeed, very sad to hear that the family has to deal with another lawsuit.

From my simple layman's read of what's been posted here, they are asking for a legal counsel to be provided by the court in a civil suit? They want $10 million, San Lazaro, and profits from the books but don't have an attorney?

I hope I never cross paths with any of these individuals. For every problem, there is a solution.

Nice , you were correct about them wanting a lawyer . Glad they got denied .

These guys are a total trip ....They all live in separate states , going after the bookstore ? wtf ? and San Lazaro why ? and how did they know or find out who Goofy was ? and how in the heck did these guys all meet each other ? WEIRD-O-RAMA .

The interesting items of interest are : Mr. Fenn said he sold San Lazaro and had no business interests left with that entity , but yet still owns it and is going through probate - This is strange why would he lie about that ?

: The fact that Goofy disappeared and that Dal didnt have a clue where he went OR who he was . Not possible at all if he was involved with San Lazaro .

You know , the more I think about this , somewhere between these lines , I have a feeling it somehow is linked to the terrible ending , somehow , someway ...I just cant put my finger on it ...

The red herrings I see are suing Dorothy from Collected and the mention of Charmay Allred ....

Is "Harry" from Harry's Chase Forum in on this lawsuit? Harry went on and on about suing the family for a lot of money if they didn't settle with Harry out of court. How many suing are from Florida (or the UK?)

I thought the same after reading this, LM... but it doesn't look like Harry is in here because he wanted to file a suit for "the mountain lion"! Looks like Harry disappeared in the Lion's den... 😊

I cannot see this getting out of the starting block or past first base, because their demands are outlandish and unrealistic, they have no understanding of the law and no sensible lawyer will take this on without being paid upfront. Lawyers have a duty to tell folk they are idiots and that the case has no merit.

Kyle Sandau.....appeared under many handles on Youtube and elsewhere.....I trust those that have already read the filing that it is garbage...HOWEVER...I will still put in my two cents worth that Sandau is like a mad scientist...and evil genius if it were....He for a brief period....(on his medications??) had more imagination and depth of thought that any two other searchers I have read put together.....I am NOT a supporter of his. He always thought it in San Lazaro....strange dude for sure.

That's the first thing that came to my mind too. Maybe "Harry" is Kyle. Nothing would surprise me at this point.

It's just more money for the attorney, and holding up real court case, if there are any? I wish the law was Andy Griffith, could you see Andy in full armor and a AK, what a shitty vision that is.

Then you got Barney Fife, full metal jacket... ha ha

Aunt B would mess you up, even a drunk like Otis was often deputized.

I love the old days....

So, like all the other lawsuits? They probably were told they're idiots and their cases have no merit, but they went forth pro se anyway. Looks like even more time will pass before the community gets proper answers. Shame.

There's a lot of moving parts to the chase, I'll confirm that yes, all is not what it seems. Kyle doesn't have the poem figured out. What he does have is that Fenn didn't do all of this alone, but Kyle doesn't understand the why or how or who - even I'm still piecing things together. All is not what it seems is an understatement.

@kpro do you remember when Doug Preston said Forrest gave a hint/clue when you were interviewing him back in 2019, then it was quickly walked back and dismissed...if my solve is correct, Fenn DID say something important and I about fell out of my chair when I heard it because it is important, but knowing it doesn't help without understanding what it means in the solve so I wasn't worried too much, then you all dismissed the idea Fenn said something important anyway, so focus on it faded away. Go back and watch that interview again without preconceived notion about what you think he said.

After perusing it a bit further -they put all this information together , paid $400 , and never stated their case . Almost like it was an information "giveaway" . They only legal wording they state is "fraud" .

I know this is crass , but I found it a little bit funny that all of their addresses have something in common , along with Banana-ramas address...hehehe

I read through more. Not only do they admit to committing crimes, he added emails of himself abusing Forrest. Showing he has little respect.

The judge will be aware of Andersen's case, coz judges chat and watch the local news, but the fool has now brought the Arizona case to his attention.

81. Plaintiffs are requesting and praying for relief in; ( a .) the amount of $10,000,000 (ten million dollars), including but not limited to compensatory and punitive damages, from Zoe Fenn Old and The Estate of Forrest Burke Fenn, whereas if granted in-full $2,000,000 (two million dollars) of those overall funds will then be placed into a neutral trust for a new, and more importantly, fair treasure hunt as a continuing benefit to and for the overall Chase community

Yes, prayer will magically do it this time and so nice of them not to forget about the chase community like the other lawsuits... wow

Yeah. Sure feels strange right now. I about fell out of my chair when Shiloh started with LORAN and went all the way to ADF. And, you know, named me. That was fun! That's straight up my solve. Beacon directional finder. I think I at least got that part right but screwed up everything else in the poem. Feels good if I got any part correct though.

Prayer is actually a legal term, it is the specific request for judgment, relief and/or damages at the conclusion of a complaint or petition. A prayer is a part of a pleading, and it usually appears at the end of the pleading.

I think it's pretty obvious that Fenn had help, those helping didn't know what others were doing, they each had a part to play and they played those parts well. I don't think anyone besides Skippy knew the location.

The "if you rent a cabin" was odd, and I looked into where you can rent a cabin on public property. There are quite a number of cabins through the USDA and other agencies, but they're not rented in the traditional sense, but are land lease cabins - you own the cabin, not the land, so you pay an annual land lease and its renewal is pretty much guaranteed every so many years. I'm not sure that was what he was talking about, or renting a cabin from an owner of such, or renting from someone on land surrounded by public land. I don't think it's on private property - my take on the poem does not suggest that - it's on public land IMO and I'm not sure if a land lease cabin qualifies as 'public land' or not, I tend to think not.

I looked into the same line of thinking . It led me to learn about the Federal Govt and the "grandfathered" parcel land sales that was a huge program back in the 50's . Where they were promoting off grid living to expand the US or something like that . The parcels were cheap AF and could be passed down from 1 generation to the next , without any tax/land fee increase . I was like DAM! I wish my grandparents had gotten a hold of such a hot piece of property .

People should have to be required to attend a mental competency hearing before filing a lawsuit.

You should look closer at the complaint and read between the lines. It is very revealing.

Was it "Shy Guy," by chance?

Shy Guy is suffering from a severe case of confirmation bias. Although, I'm biased in my confirmation of his confirmation bias. So, if you set all bias aside you might find the solutions hidden among some email addresses. You just have to know which things to add or subtract. Just remember, for a cipher to work, you have to use all the characters in the cipher key.

I only glanced through this crap, but did Kyle Sandau admit in a sworn statement to trespassing on Fenn land and maybe excavating?

Yes, he's obsessed with that place...his videos back in the day were just him in his car looking at the Secrets of San Lazaro with the camera and asking his viewers if "they could believe that" about fantasies he had about chase university.

I remember thinking to myself "no" over and over as he kept asking that. Apparently he has 2 fans from his channel? Some South Dakotans will buy anything, especially if they are from Sioux Falls area...

I'm not even going to comment on it any further. Watch it and make your own assumptions.

I'm pretty sure they were making fun of him in that video. This is the real one.

If that's actually him he sounds like a demon. He sounds like he sub let his soul for an eternity. He stood with the devil at the crossroads of California (they're all idiots there, sorry) and Eas Nomel (my remorseful norse nickname for the gnome that steals your wallet when you're shitting) and asked for tickets on Southwest airlines to the coroner. The coroner lobotomized him and told him to drool somewhere else. I feel sorry for the fenns that they have to deal with Monrsters like that. $#@$.

Is unauthorized excavation criminal damage? Is this why one of the three stooges stayed in the car a few miles away? Coz they knew they were committing crimes?
